George Obermier has brought suit common pleas court, through his attorneys, Lynch & Day, against John Morledge, Jemima Morledge and
James E. Steinmetz, George D. Hammond, Louis Loichtt and James R. McLaughlin, assignees of the Farmers' bank, to recover the sum of $191 --30 which the plaintiff claims is due him on a promissory note. The plaintiff avers that he delivered to James E. Moriedge and wife, Jemima Morledge, a promissory note calling for the sum of $400, with interest from December 1, 1906, for their mortgage deed conveying to the plaintiff realty in Pike township. When the note became due the defendants failed to The plaintiff also says that the other defendants, James Steinmitz, George D. Hammond, Louis A. Loichot and James R. McLaughlin, assignees of the Farmers' bank, have a claim or some lien upon said premises. Obermier asks judgment and also that the bank assignees be required to set up the nature and the amounts of their asserted liens upon the said prem-ises in Pike township and of default of payment that the premises be sold as upon execution to satisfy his mort-gage indebtedness from the defendant and that the respective liens of the bank assignees be marshalled and determined by the court for the costs and proper relief.

ANNUAL REPORT OF CLERK. Clerk of Courts Jacob J. Wise yesterday filed his annual report with the Stark county commissioners for the moneys collected by him due the county for fines, costs and stenographers' fees from September 1, 1907, to September 1, 1908 The report 2543, Massillon, $100. shows the amount collected to be $17,507,62, which has been paid to County Treasurer Harry Knobloch.

GOOD ROADS PETITION. The board of county commissioners have received a petition from the property owners along the Canton-New Berlin road asking for either a brick or macadamized roadway be-tween the two places. The petition was filed yesterday with the board and will be forwarded to State Highway Commissioner Wonders, at Columbus, within the next two or three months. The majority of the abutting property owners have signed the petition which is sought to have the improve-ment made under the state highway law which says that the state will pay half the entire cost, the county one-fourth, the property owners, onetenth and the county-at-large, fifteen

The petition calls for a brick or macadamized roadway from the north corporate limits of this city to the south corporate limits of New Berlin, a distance of about three and onehalf miles. The new roadway, if built, cannot be less than twelve feet or more than sixteen feet between the curb stones according to the state law. The following property owners have signed the petition and waive all claim for damages by reason of the change of grade or the road's impassable condition during construction: L. A. Stoner, L. A. Schneider, J. E. Schneider, H. H. Herman, Frank Schultz, H. N. Miller, M. L. Kaufman, L. F. Kaufman, W. H. Schneider, R. S. Ambler, A. E. Bow, L. H. Camp-beil, H. A. The board also received another petition from property owners along the Canton-Massillon road, which ealls for the improvement of the roadway a mile east of Massillon. These petitions will be approved by the county commissioners and forwarded to the state commissioner at Columbus, for his approval.

BUSY GRAND JURY.

Prosecutor Upham is of the opinion the busiest and the criminal term one of the most important in recent years. A large number of cases are filed for investigation by the jury, some of them most serious in their import. and the result will no doubt be some criminal trials of much importance

The Miller murder case of Alliance will also come up. The first move to be made in this matter is likely to be the examination into Miller's insanity. A special jury will be drawn for this purpose and laymen and experts summoned by both state and defense as If he is found sane then he will be put on trial this term for murder if his physical condition is fit. At the present time he is confined at the county workhouse where he was taken several months ago.

WILL CHANGE ASSIGNMENTS. Judges Harter and Ambler, of the Stark common pleas bench, have arranged to change assignments for next week. Judge Harter will go to Carrollton in place of Judge Ambler and the latter jurist will take charge of the grand jury and the assignment made out for Judge Harter. On the following week, if the docket in Carroll is not cleared, Judge Ambler will go there and Judge Harter will hold court here.

SUCCESSFUL SHERIFF'S SALE. The sale by the sheriff of the realty lying on Eric and Rappe streets and west of the Fulton road Thursday afternoon was one of the most successful in the past year. The land was part of the estate of the late Harriet Shorb and was sold by order of court, the result of a suit in partition filed by one of the heirs to the estate. Ten lots located on Rappe and Erie streets were sold to different parties for the total sum of $3870. Thirtythree lots lying west of Fulton street were sold to Ellen Shorb for $8550 and a tract of 4.09 acres of land was sold to Charles Kolp for $2500. total amount realized was $14,920 and the appraised value of the property was $12,635, or $1285 less than the sum total brought at the sale.
